We're all electric

Ever since the ancient Greeks used electric fish on migraines, electrotherapy has been used to treat, record & monitor health

Modern evidence proves the powerful role of bio-electronics in pain relief, inflammatory & cardiovascular systems, healing, organ function & immune responses.

We're taking that power & putting it directly into people's own hands.

The technologies in our wearable medical devices are evidence-based, easy-to-use and empowering. They harness the body's own bioelectrical systems to block pain, speed healing, boost performance, quicken body recovery, improve mobility - for any one, at any age.

The latest medical evidence in the palm of your hand

We see the time is fast approaching when our first wellness choice will be to reach for devices, not pills.

The bioelectronic technologies in all NuroKor Life Series devices can activate the body's own mechanisms for treating inflammatory diseases like arthritis, aiding in stroke recovery, improving circulation in diabetics, promoting wound healing and helping to manage pain.

KorOS  Our proprietary, clinically-proven technology combines the latest medical evidence that has been engineered into easy-to-use apps.

Just some of the benefits:

- Seamless & ever present body-natural painkillers, with no side effects.
- Supports your body's own healing and recovery processes
